Our Freedom comes at a price far greater than we could ever repay to these soldiers and their families, so we give back when and where we can, but we give back.

Our mission is to provide outdoor adventures as a form of therapy to help veterans cope with multiple deployments over the years. This has proven to be invaluable in their short and long term recovery.

We also provide hunting/fishing trips to Gold Star children of fallen heroes with the help of Patriots across this country.

If you are like me and are a grateful and Free American, check us out and see how you too can get involved in some way and show those veterans just how thankful you are, by either donating funds, hosting an event or just a few deserving veterans over a weekend.
